DETAILED ACTION

Claim Objections

Claim 21 is objected to because of the following informalities: In line 10, there appears to be a typographical error where it recites "said first electronic said first".

Appropriate correction is required.

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claim 21 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Lang.

A toy; a first means (126) remote from the toy for transmitting first electronic signals carrying first audio input from a first source remotely located relative to the toy, for receiving second electronic signals (127) carrying second audio input from a second source located proximal to the toy transmitted from the toy, and for deriving from the second electronic signals from the second audio input; the toy including second means (753) for transmitting the second electronic signals carrying the second audio input from the second proximally located source to the first source remotely located relative to the toy for receiving the first electronic signals carrying the first audio input from the first source remotely located relative to the toy, and for deriving from the first electronic the first audio input; voice modulating means (540) operatively connected with the first means (col. 9, lines 15-18); the toy including motion means (drive servos) for moving at least one predetermined part of the toy in response to first electronic signals carrying the first audio input from the first remotely located source to the toy in synchronism with the first audio input (col. 6, lines 38-41); the first means including two wireless radios (240,242), one of which is maintained in a receive mode (240) and the other of which is maintained in a transmitting mode (242); the second means including two wireless radios (240,242), one of which is maintained in a receive mode (240), and the other of which is maintained in a transmitting mode (242); and the voice modulating means (540) operably connected with the first means (126) for disguising the first audio input (col. 9, lines 15-18).

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments with respect to the claims have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of
